Comparison of Stormwater Fees in a Sampling of PA Municipalities

Locality	Residential Tiers				Non-Residential
City of Erie	Tier 1 = $12 (Lot SF 500-1,200)	Tier 2 = $24 (Lot SF 1,200-1,550)	Tier 3 = $36 (Lot SF >1,550)		$24 per 2,136 SF
Meadville	$90 per Single-Family Detached				$90 per 2,660 SF
Allentown	$20 per 500 SF				$20 per 500 SF
Mount Lebanon	$96 per Single-Family Detached				$96 per 2,400 SF
White Township	$24 per Single Family Detached				$24 per 3,700 SF
Radnor Township	Tier 1= $29 (Lot SF <7,000)	Tier 2= $58 (Lot 7,000-20,000 SF)	Tier 3= $87 (Lot 20,000 – 43,560 SF)	Tier 4= $116 (Lot >43,560 SF)	$29 per 1,500 SF
Easton, PA	$81.00 a year ($6.75/mo.)				$81 per 1,797 SF
Ferguson Township, Centre County	ERU – two service area rates (Growth Area and non-Growth Area) $119/Growth Area ERU Rate annually $75/Non-Growth Area annually				$119/$75 per 3097 SF
Bethlehem, PA	$60 per single-family residence				$60 per 2,100 SF

Philadelphia was the first PA municipality to adopt a fee in 2011. According to a survey conducted by Western Kentucky University in 2020, at least 35 PA municipalities have implemented Stormwater fees, including Allentown, Carlisle, Dormont, Greenville, Chambersburg, Chester, Clarion Borough, Cranberry Township, Derry Township, Easton, Ebensburg, Greencastle Borough, Hampden Township, Hanover Borough, Harrisburg, Highspire Borough, Jonestown, Lancaster, Lower Allen Township, Lower Paxton Township, Lower Swatara Township, Meadville, Monroeville, Mount Lebanon, New Castle, North Fayette Township, North Lebanon Township, Philadelphia, Radnor Township, Silver Spring Township, Susquehanna Township, Upper Allen Township, Waynesborough, West Chester, White Township, Wyoming Valley. Western Kentucky University Stormwater Utility Survey 2020 (wku.edu)