How to recycle items at the curb

Place clear recycling bags or blue bins curbside apart from trash on regular refuse collection nights.

Blue bags are not acceptable.

Use clear plastic bags or blue bins for residential recycling.

Blue bins are not provided by the City of Erie.

Do not mix trash with recyclables.

Once contaminated, the recyclable items will not be sorted and the entire bag is thrown into the trash.

Why are we accepting less plastic?

At this time, the City of Erie recycling vendor can only accept plastic bottles, jugs, or jars with screw top caps. All other plastic items, including the caps, should be thrown in the trash.

Due to global market conditions, the demand for recycled plastic is low. Other plastic items used to be shipped overseas but are no longer being accepted. We hope to have other options soon.

Why are we no longer accepting glass?

When mixed with other recyclables, glass breaks and ruins both the glass container and the other items in the bag. Once contaminated, the items cannot be sorted by our recycling vendor and the entire bag is thrown into the trash.

We encourage you to recycle your glass at a private recycling facility, which can be found online at cityoferie.pa.us/recycling. Otherwise, carefully dispose of your glass in the trash.

DO NOT rake leaves into city streets. This creates a hazardous situation for cars, motorcycles, cyclists, walkers, and runners. Wet leaves can cause slippery conditions. Cars parked over dry leaves can catch fire.

Stormwater

What is Stormwater?

Stormwater is water from rain, snow and melting ice that flows across the ground, driveways, streets, and parking lots.

Why do we need it?

Stormwater replenishes ground water and is needed for water recreation and healthy wildlife habitats.

Where does it go?

When it falls on lawns, parks and wooded areas, stormwater soaks into the soil. When it lands on hard surfaces, such as driveways, streets and parking lots it flows into storm drains, which drain directly into our bay, our lake, and nearby creeks and streams.

How can it become polluted?

When stormwater flows across driveways, streets and parking lots, it becomes polluted from dirt, debris, oil, chemicals, and cigarette butts. Illegally dumping materials and fluids down storm drains also pollutes the water. Because the storm drains empty into our waterways, the pollution makes the water unsafe for fish, wildlife and humans.

Help keep our land and water clean. Fresh water is priceless.

- Compost leaves, dispose of pet waste with refuse, recycle used motor oil.
- Dispose of cleaning supplies, pesticides, herbicides and fertilizers properly and safely. Go to cityof.erie.pa.us/recycling to find out how.
- Use natural and organic alternatives whenever possible.
- Install rain barrels to capture rainwater for lawns and gardens.

Erie and the American Rescue Plan

Through the American Rescue Plan (ARP) funding the City of Erie received from the federal government, Mayor Schember's administration aims to fund projects, programs, and initiatives that will have a lasting impact for generations to come. This funding will provide services to those who were economically and disproportionately affected during the pandemic, increase public safety, and rebuild our aging infrastructure.

Between 2022 and 2026, we intend to use these funds to:

- Acquire and demolish blighted homes
- Offer homeownership incentive programs
- Provide loans and grants for home rehabilitation
- Acquire, demolish, and put blighted industrial properties into productive reuse
- Provide small businesses with grants, loans, and technical assistance
- Provide consulting and support to entrepreneurs
- Develop our urban core
- Revitalize our parks with input from residents
- Implement neighborhood plans and the Active Erie Transportation Plan
- Deploy public safety initiatives
- Shore up our stormwater infrastructure
- Improve our technological capabilities for better efficiency

Most importantly, through these programs our intent is to lift up those in Erie who are most in need—for generations to come. Now is the time to build opportunity, restore hope, and transform Erie.
